Terms & Conditions

All quoted prices include food preparation and service, staffing (front & back of house), all kitchen equipment, glassware and napery components. These prices are G.S.T. inclusive.

Final attendance numbers must be advised at least 7 days prior to the commencement of the any function. This is the minimum number of guests that will be invoiced to the client.

In the event of a late increase in numbers, our catering team will endeavour to cater additional guests. Given the remoteness of our location however, this may not be possible. The onus to provide an accurate catering number rests with the client.

Cape York Peninsula Lodge requires a holding deposit of 25% of the projected revenue of the function on acceptance of the confirmation. In the unfortunate event of a cancellation of the function this deposit is fully refundable if the notification is received at least 7 days prior to the function.

Cape York Peninsula Lodge requires the remaining amount (75% of the projected revenue of the function) to be paid when final numbers are confirmed.

We are happy to accept purchase orders from corporate clients as long as a credit application has been approved prior to the event. Under this circumstance a deposit is not required. If cancellation occurs with less than seven days' notice however, the client will be liable for a cancellation fee of 25% of the projected revenue of the function.

Cape York Peninsula Lodge exhibits complete care with equipment used at functions but cannot accept responsibility for any breakages that occur. This responsibility belongs to the client & must be paid in full by the client. Nor will we be held liable in any way for damage that occurs to our venue during the course of this function.

Cape York Peninsula Lodge acknowledges that the information collected through the course of our clients' enquiries is "personal information" as defined by the Privacy & Personal Information Act 1998 (the "Act"). This information is privileged & confidential in nature. You have the right of access to, & alteration of, personal information concerning yourself, in accordance to this Act.

Kind regards,
